Young Author at Sharjah Book Fair 2025!

We are proud to share that Huda Juwairiah of Grade 5E (Primary Girls Section) successfully launched her short story “The Peace Ambassador” at the Sharjah International Book Fair on 16th November 2025.

On 16th November 2025, the Sharjah International Book Fair, one of the region’s most prestigious literary events, served as a platform to celebrate young authors and emerging literary talent.

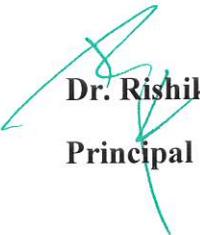

As part of this event, the short story “The Peace Ambassador” was officially launched. The story is featured in a children’s anthology comprising multiple short stories authored by young writers under the guidance of Vmentors, an educational edutech organization that supports creative writing and skill development among school students.

The story was written by Huda Juwairiah of Grade 5E (Primary Girls Section). Through her narrative, she highlights the values of peace, empathy, and unity, demonstrating creativity, maturity of thought, and strong moral understanding. Inspired by the book Muhammad Najem, War Reporter, the story reflects how challenges can be transformed into strength and positive action, presented in the student’s own distinctive style.

Huda’s interest in writing has been nurtured in a supportive literary environment, with encouragement from her family and mentors. With continuous guidance from Vmentors, she confidently took her first step into authorship.

The book launch marked a proud moment for the school community, reinforcing the institution’s commitment to fostering creativity, encouraging student voice, and providing meaningful learning opportunities beyond the classroom.
