Report on Achievement in Department of Culture and Tourism Letter Writing Competition 2026

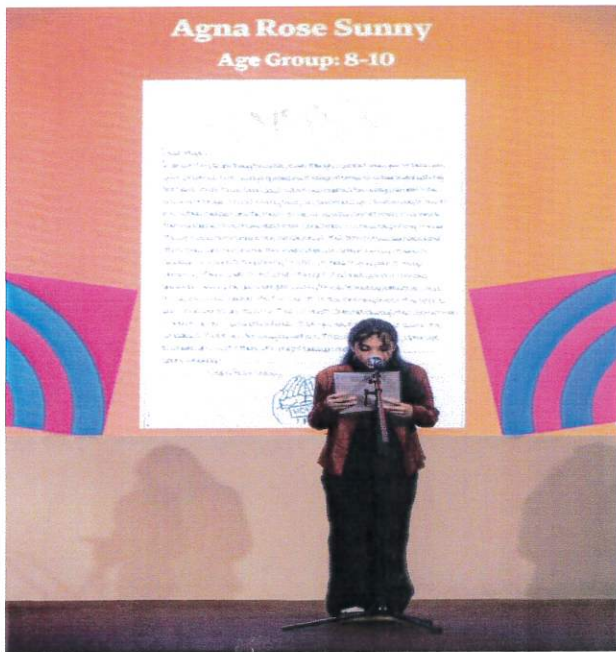

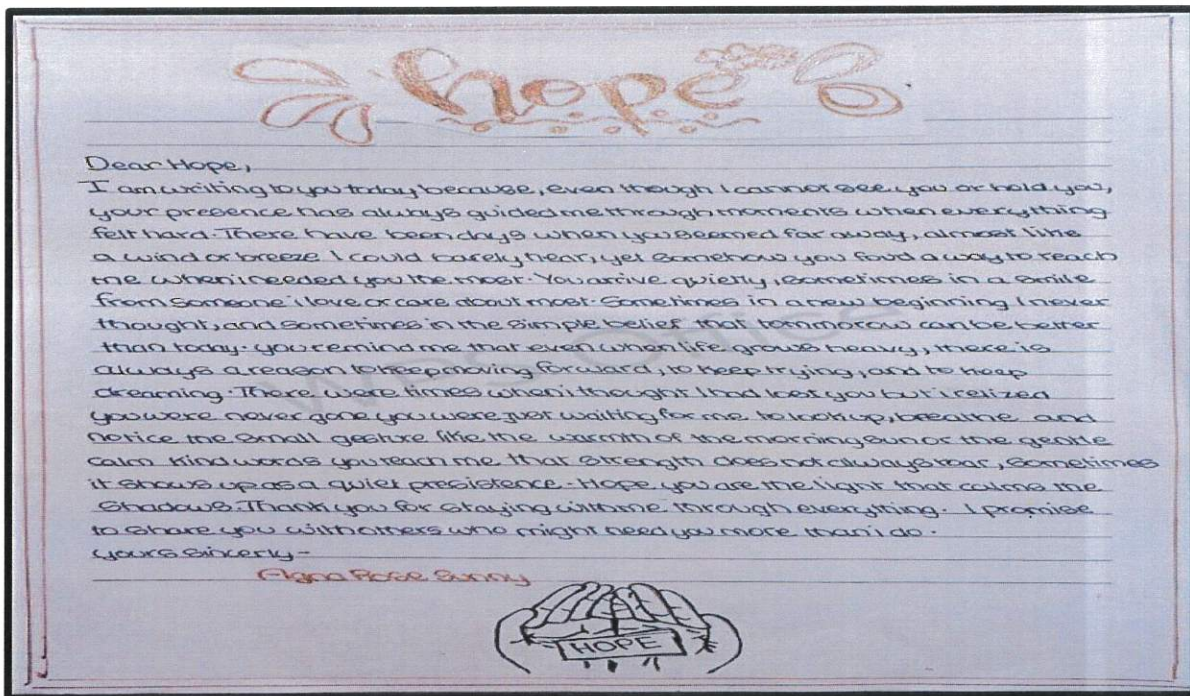

Agna Rose Sunny of Grade 5F secured First Position in the Letter Writing Competition 2026 organized by the Department of Culture and Tourism, UAE. The theme for the competition was “Hope”, encouraging students to express optimism and resilience through handwritten letters.

A large number of students participated with great enthusiasm representing diverse schools and curricula from across the UAE. Her thoughtful writing and creative approach reflected a strong understanding of the theme.

In recognition of her achievement, she attended the Award Ceremony held on 24 January 2026 at Dubai Festival City.

Her accomplishment is a proud moment for Abu Dhabi Indian School and highlights the importance of nurturing creativity and confidence through literary competitions. The school congratulates Agna Rose and wishes her continued success.
